Our Story

Ardant Innovations, a Washington D.C. area-based company, conceived by two determined entrepreneurs believing that government agencies and commercial companies will benefit from our “innovative” approach of delivering services and support. Our approach is in the name “Ardant” that combines the words “Arduous” and “Vigilant.” The synonyms describe our commitment to hard work and persistence to innovative winning solutions.

We know that any government agency or private sector company will profit from a company that has passion and a vision to align with the client’s needs. Ardant Innovations offers an array of government services including Training and Development, Information Technology, and Consulting Services.

The mission of Ardant Innovations is to establish growth, encourage new concepts and cultivate excellence in organizations. Also to provide award-winning solutions to our clients.

Our vision is to become the sought-after company for services to the public and private sectors.
